

Code: T 650 Prinzol Power Steering Fluid

PRINZOL Power Steering Fluid is a combination Paraffinic and Naphthenic Base oils which is intended to get a low temperature benefits. It is formulated with a conditioner and a leak stop.

It is used to keep the steering system clean and to protect seals.

It also stops pumps from squealing and prevents unusual wear to ensure smooth and quiet operation.

This automotive fluid mixes with most factory power steering fluids..

PRINZOL's Power Steering Fluid helps to maintain efficiency, performance and the condition of power steering units. Designed to prevent leakage and squealing under severe weather conditions for protecting the seals and hoses.

Properties:

- Will not foam
- Helps stop pump squealing, protects seals and helps prevent unusual wear
- Mixes with most factory power steering fluids
- High-quality transmission fluid with conditioner
- Keeps steering system clean
- For smooth, quiet operation
- Resists oxidation, corrosion and wear
- Prevents leaks
- Help maintain condition of hoses and pumps

RECOMMENDED FOR:

- GM Vehicles
- Ford Vehicles
- Chrysler Vehicles
- Most European makes

Specifications

Product Code	T 650
Viscosity cSt@400C	38
Viscosity cSt@ 100°C	7.0
Viscosity Index	162
Gravity, API @60°F	30.5
Flash Point °F	365
Pour Point, °F	43.5
Color	Amber